CONTRIBUTORS

Michael L. Johnson is chair of the Department of English at the University of Kansas. Though perhaps best known as a poet, he has published books and articles on a variety of subjects. His most recent book is Ecphrases: Poems as Interpretations of the Other Arts (Woodley Press, 1989).

Tony R. Mullis is a captain in the United States Air Force, and an assistant professor of history at the United States Air Force Academy.

Patrick J. O'Connor has a masters degree in Communication from Wichita State University. He has published in the Midwest Quarterly and Pig Iron Press. He sometimes plays the piano, he told a reporter for the Wichita Eagle recently.

John E. Peterson is former Dean of the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences at Emporia State University. He has published widely in biology, history, and other topics over the years that have captured his interest. He is the author of "The Life of the Mind" and, following this issue, will assume responsibility for Heritage of the Great Plains.
